DISCLAIMER

For the contents of this homepage and for all links of the web pages the author assumes no liability for the correctness and completeness of which kind always; the contents serve only - if at all - the first non-binding advice or for information purposes. The establishment of a mandate relationship is thereby excluded. All offers are non-binding. The author expressly reserves the right to change, supplement or delete parts of the pages or the entire offer without prior notice or to cease publication temporarily or permanently. The author of this website has no influence on the content, design and presentation of external websites to which the links lead, which is why the assumption of liability is excluded in any case. The author also dissociates himself from possible illegal content of accessible websites and, if available, asks for relevant information so that the link can be resolved. No liability is accepted for the consequences of the loss of confidential information during the transmission of data. In order to exclude risks, it is recommended to check the recipient data before contacting them or to contact the recipient by telephone.

COPYRIGHT LICENSE

The author endeavors to observe the copyrights of the graphics, sound documents, video sequences and texts used in all publications, to use graphics, sound documents, video sequences and texts created by himself or to resort to license-free graphics, sound documents, video sequences and texts. All brand names and trademarks mentioned within the Internet offer and possibly protected by third parties are subject without restriction to the provisions of the applicable trademark law and the ownership rights of the respective registered owners. Just because of the mere mention is not to draw the conclusion that trademarks are not protected by rights of third parties! The copyright for published objects created by the author remains solely with the author of the pages. Reproduction or use of such graphics, sound documents, video sequences and texts in other electronic or printed publications is not permitted without the express consent of the author.

ACCESS DATA / SERVER LOG FILES

The provider (or their webspace provider) collects data about each access to the offer (so-called server log files). The access data include:

Name of the retrieved web page, file, date and time of the retrieval, transmitted data volume, notification of successful retrieval, browser type and version, the user's operating system, the referrer URL, the IP address and the requesting provider. The provider uses the log data only for statistical evaluations for the purpose of operation, security and optimization of the offer. However, the provider reserves the right to check the log data at a later date, if there is a reasonable suspicion of unlawful use.

HANDLING OF PERSONAL DATA / DATA PROTECTION

Personal data is information by means of which a person can be identified, i.e. information which can be traced back to a person. This includes the name, email address or phone number. But also, data about preferences, hobbies, memberships or which websites were viewed by someone count to personal data.

Insofar as the opportunity to enter personal or business data (e-mail addresses, names, addresses) exists within the Internet offer, the disclosure of this data by the user is expressly voluntary. The use and payment of all offered services is - as far as technically possible and reasonable - also without specification of such data or under specification of anonymized data or a pseudonym allowed. The use of the contact data published in the imprint or comparable information such as postal addresses, telephone and fax numbers as well as e-mail addresses by third parties for the purpose of sending information not expressly requested is not permitted. Legal action against the senders of so-called spam mails for violations of this prohibition are expressly reserved.

Personal data are collected, used and passed on by the provider only if this is legally permitted or if the users consent to the data collection.

CONTACTING

When contacting the provider (for example via a contact form or e-mail), the user's data are stored for the purpose of processing the inquiry as well as in the event that connection questions arise.

NEWSLETTER

With the newsletter we inform you about us and our offers. If you would like to receive the newsletter, we need a valid e-mail address, as well as information that will allow us to verify that you are the owner of the given e-mail address, or whose owner agrees to receive the newsletter. Further data is not collected. These data are only used for sending the newsletters and will not be passed on to third parties. By registering for the newsletter, we will save your IP address and the date of the registration. This storage serves solely as proof in the event that a third party misuses an e-mail address and logs in without the knowledge of the person entitled to receive the newsletter. You can revoke your consent to the storage of the data, the e-mail address as well as their use for sending the newsletters at any time. The revocation can take place via a link in the newsletters themselves, in your profile area or by notification to the above contact possibilities.

INFORMATION ACCORDING TO MEDIA LAW

Purpose of the company: The object of the company is of the engineering profession, including all related activities. This website is a communication medium and is aimed at clients and other persons interested in design and development of engineering components of the Automotive Sector.

INTEGRATION OF THIRD PARTY SERVICES AND CONTENT

It is possible that third party contents, such as videos from YouTube, Google Maps map material, RSS feeds or graphics from other websites, may be included within this website. This always assumes that the providers of these contents (hereinafter referred to as "third-party providers") perceive the IP address of the users. Because without the IP address, they could not send the content to the browser of the respective user. The IP address is thus required for the display of these contents. We only make use of such content, whose respective providers use the IP address only for the delivery of the content. However, if the third-party vendors use the IP address, for example, for statistical purposes. As far as we know, we will inform the users about it.

GETTY IMAGES

Within this offer the images of the Stock Image Vendor Getty Images can be integrated. The images are on a frame with the reference "Getty Images" recognizable. The representation of these images assumes that Getty Images perceives the IP address of the users, so that the images can be delivered to the user's browser. The IP address is thus required for the display of these contents. According to current knowledge, the IP address is only used for this purpose. However, the provider has no influence on whether Getty Images uses the IP address, e.g. for statistical purposes. If this is known to the provider, the users are enlightened, or the images removed.

GOOGLE ANALYTICS

This offer uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google, Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses so-called "cookies", text files that are stored on users' computers and which allow an analysis of the use of the website through them. The information generated by the cookie about the use of this website by the users is generally transferred to a Google server in the USA and stored there. However, in the case of the activation of the IP anonymization on this website, the IP address of the users of Google will be previously abridged within Member States of the European Union or in other Contracting States of the Agreement on the European Economic Area. Only in exceptional cases will the full IP address be transferred to a Google server in the USA and abbreviated there. IP anonymization is active on this website. On behalf of the operator of this website, Google will use this information to evaluate the use of the website by the users to compile reports on the website activities and to provide other services related to the website usage and the Internet usage against the website operator. The IP address provided by your browser as part of Google Analytics will not be merged with other Google data. Users can prevent the storage of cookies by setting their browser software accordingly; However, this offer warrants to users that in this case, you may not be able to fully utilize all the functions of this website.

SOCIAL PLUGINS

On this website are Plug-ins of the social network Facebook, Facebook Inc., Menlo Park, California, United States, in the form of a "Like Button" and / or the social network Google Plus Google Inc., 1600 Amphitheater Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043, United States, integrated in the form of a "+1 button". The plugin allows a direct connection between the user's browser and the Facebook or Google server. Facebook or Google determine information (in particular the date and time of the website call and other browser-related information) of the user on the website. If the user clicks on the Facebook "Like button" or the Google "+1 button" while the user is logged in to his Facebook account or Google account, Facebook or Google is also possible to visit the website Site to the profile of the user.

More information can be found here <http://www.facebook.com/help/186325668085084> and here <http://www.google.com/intl/de+/policy/+1button.html>

By visiting the website, you expressly agree to such use of your user information.

USE OF FACEBOOK SOCIAL PLUGINS

This offer uses social plugins of the social network facebook.com, operated by Facebook Ireland Ltd., 4 Grand Canal Square, Grand Canal Harbor, Dublin 2, Ireland ("Facebook"). The plugins are recognizable on one of the Facebook logos (white "f" on a blue tile, the terms "Like", "Like" or "thumb up") or are marked with the addition "Facebook Social Plugin". The list and the appearance of the Facebook Social Plugins can be viewed here: <https://developers.facebook.com/docs/plugins/>
When a user calls up a web page that contains such a plugin, their browser builds a direct link to the Facebook servers. The content of the plugin is transmitted directly from Facebook to your browser and integrated into the website. The provider therefore has no influence on the extent of the data that Facebook collects with the help of this plugin and therefore informs the user according to their knowledge:

By integrating the plugins, Facebook receives the information that a user has called the corresponding page of the offer. If the user is logged into Facebook, Facebook can assign the visit to their Facebook account. If users interact with the plugins, for example press the Like button or comment, the corresponding information will be sent directly to Facebook by Facebook and stored there. If a user is not a member of Facebook, there is the possibility that Facebook will get their IP address and save it. According to Facebook is stored in Germany only an anonymous IP address. The purpose and scope of the data collection and the further processing and use of the data by Facebook, as well as the rights and settings for the protection of the privacy of the users, can be found in Facebook's privacy statement: <https://www.facebook.com/about/privacy/>

If a user is a Facebook member and does not want Facebook to collect data about them through this offer and to link it with their member data stored on Facebook, they must to log out of Facebook before visiting the Internet presence. Further settings and inconsistencies to the use of data for advertising purposes are possible within the Facebook profile settings:

<https://www.facebook.com/settings?tab=ads>

TWITTER

This offer uses web page elements (<https://dev.twitter.com/web/overview>) Buttons, or embedded content of the Twitter service offered by Twitter Inc., 795 Folsom St., Suite 600, San Francisco, CA 94107, USA. With the aid of the web page elements it is possible, e.g. to share or share this post on Twitter or follow the author on Twitter. As a further content, individual tweets can be integrated into the website. When a user browses a web page that contains such a web page, their browser directly connects to Twitter's servers. The content of the website element is transmitted directly from Twitter to the user's browser. The provider therefore has no influence on the amount of data that Twitter collects with the help of the website elements and informs the users according to their knowledge. According to this, only the IP address of the user is transmitted with the URL of the respective web page when the button is drawn but is not used for purposes other than the representation of the web page element. For more information, see Twitter's privacy policy at <http://twitter.com/privacy>

REVOCATIONS, CHANGES, CORRECTIONS & UPDATES

The user has the right, on request, to receive free of charge information about the personal data that has been stored about them. In addition, the user has the right to correct incorrect data, blockage and deletion of their personal data, to the extent that there is no statutory retention requirement.
